

As bowls fill, as hands mix, as spoons scoop and clay folds, open-ended materials transform in the mind of the child. Unique items become ingredients and dishes are crafted with delicate intention.

a menu of creations: soupe du jour

in the eyes of the child, anything
can become
everything

